99.9% Uptime — Financially Backed Service Level Agreement (SLA)

Audio, web and video conferencing have become indispensable business collaboration tools. You rely on them for everything from daily team projects to board meetings and global company events. We recognize that for many businesses, our service isn't a nice-to-have; rather, it's mission-critical. We're deeply ingrained in your workflow and a vital part of your business.

We take this seriously, and we want you to know how committed we are. We're expanding our dedication to customer obsession and world-class support by providing a financially backed SLA.

This assurance is now included in Lifesize Cloud Extreme Support for Enterprise Subscription Plan customers and for Premium Subscription Plan customers that choose to upgrade to Extreme Support.

Frequently Asked Questions

Please refer to the Lifesize Cloud Extreme Support Service Level Agreement for the official SLA and complete details.

1. QUESTION: What is the service level availability commitment?

We will use commercially reasonable efforts to make the Lifesize Cloud service generally available 99.9% of each calendar month.

2. QUESTION: What happens if Lifesize does not achieve the availability commitment?

In the event we do not achieve the availability commitment in a calendar month, an eligible customer will receive a service credit to their account at the annual subscription renewal.

3. QUESTION: What is unavailable time?

"Unavailable time" is any continuous period of time lasting five (5) minutes or more during which registered users of Lifesize Cloud are unable to sign into the Lifesize Cloud service and initiate video calls. Unavailable time is measured per subscribed account per month.

4. QUESTION: Does unavailable time include planned maintenance?

Unavailable time excludes time during which Lifesize Cloud is unavailable due to planned, emergency or customer-requested maintenance.
